LINT CENTER AWARDS SCHOLARSHIP TO VETERAN OF OPERATION IRAQI FREEDOM

Lint Center for National Security Studies Announces 2008 Winner of Virginia and Frank Misselhorn Memorial Scholarship

WASHINGTON, D.C., August 28, 2008 – The Lint Center for National Security Studies today announced the winner of the 2008 Virginia and Frank Misselhorn Memorial Scholarship. The Lint Center, a non-profit charity, focused on supporting the educational pursuits of the next generation of America’s Counterintelligence and National Security Workers, awarded its second scholarship this summer to Joseph Linhart. The Virginia and Frank Misselhorn Memorial Scholarship award aims to identify, support, and mentor an emerging leader focused on Alliance Building, Counterintelligence, and National Security studies.

“This means a tremendous amount to me and I am humbled to receive this scholarship award from the Lint Center,” said Joseph Linhart, First Lieutenant., New York Army National Guard and project manager for Kraft Foods Global. “I am confident that the Virginia and Frank Misselhorn Memorial Scholarship will better afford me the opportunity to pursue my academic pursuits and that the Lint Center’s mentoring program will help empower me to achieve my professional aspirations.”

“The Lint Center was extremely pleased with Joseph Linhart’s analytical essay discussing war and diplomacy as well as his experience with Effects Based Operations while serving in Operation Iraqi Freedom,” said Jim Lint, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Lint Center for National Security Studies, Inc. “Linhart’s honorable service and time overseas in a hostile theater has sharpened his perception and appreciation of important national security issues. The fact that his insights exceed his years is as impressive as it is necessary for America’s future. We are excited to support Mr. Linhart’s educational efforts and the Center looks forward to being an active mentor as he pursues a career in the public sector.”

About the 2008 Virginia and Frank Misselhorn Memorial Scholarship:

The Virginia and Frank Misselhorn Memorial Scholarship fund provides $500 to recipients pursuing scholastic study in fields related to Alliance Building, Counterintelligence, and National Security studies. Linhart will receive a national security mentor provided by the Lint Center to provide guidance on his future endeavors.

Due to the generosity and continued support of the world's leading private intelligence company, Strategic Forecasting, Inc. (www.stratfor.com), Linhart will receive a one year subscription to Stratfor's Subscription Service which includes industry leading intelligence reports providing situational awareness, geopolitical analysis, and analytically rigorous forecasting.
